

“My clients appreciate having advice on a broad range of business topics from one person. And I like the flexibility and variety this gives me.”

experience

Gary is a business and corporate services partner at PKF's Sydney and Caringbah offices. He has been with PKF for over 20 years and a partner for over 8 years. Gary has held various management roles within PKF including being on the PKF Board and National Chairman of the Business Advisory Services Committee for PKF Australia.

Gary has tax, accounting and business advisory clients from small to medium sized businesses. He performs company audits and the completion of company and share valuations, system reviews and due diligence reports.

Some of Gary's work is referred by solicitors and barristers seeking his input for litigation support. He values businesses for family law matters, sale of businesses and dispute resolution work.

Gary has broad experience with manufacturing, wholesale, building and construction, mortgage practices, printing, real estate, accounting and charitable organisations.
