

“I believe a good working relationship with a client involves communication, commitment and mutual respect. The reward is client satisfaction.”

kim colyer

experience

Kim joined PKF in June 1998. Her experience includes a three month secondment to our PKF London office.

Kim has managed and carried out audits across a wide range of industries including aged care, construction, property development, local government, sporting associations, mining, manufacturing, hospitality, brewing, provedoring, financial institutions, pastoral, agribusiness and service industries.

She has a strong knowledge of general purpose financial reporting, Corporations Law and other disclosure requirements. This invaluable knowledge and experience has enabled Kim to assist her clients, from public listed entities to small proprietary companies, in producing high standard financial reports in a timely manner.

Kim has a good practical approach to resolving problems and getting jobs done in an efficient manner.
